The Slamtones Band combines the sound and style of Classic Rock, R&B, and Pop. Their sound is laden with the punch and drive of a true all American rock band. They can be found performing at clubs, festivals and private parties throughout the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

The Slamtones Band was formed at the start of the millennium but its history goes back to the early 80's when its members began honing their live music skills in bands such as Shades and Moonstruck. Later, in the early 90s, all of its members came together in various incarnations of the ever popular band Kickback where they shared the stage with major recording artists such as Diamond Rio, Toby Keith, and Sawyer Brown to name a few. Wanting to get back to their Rock roots, in 2000 they formed The Slamtones Band.

Crowds always have a good time when these guys come to town. Drawing on their many years of experience, the Slamtones can entertain even the most diverse audience with a blend of rocking favorites and a few of their own tunes. Their sound is rich and full with a groove so deep you could drive a Semi through it.

The Slamtones have recently released their first CD entitled "Rush Hour" which can be found on just about every music download site on the web. Their singles "Aint No Thing" and "Dangerous Eyes" have been heard on WMQT in Marquette.

Listen to The Slamtones Band. We think you'll agree that they are the real deal. A band for any occasion with music for any mood.
